

KATHAKALI

From Kerala, India

... a unique opportunity to experience internationally acclaimed performers of this traditional dance/theater in four intimate performances

“One of the real epic theaters of the world.”

— CLIVE BARNES, NY TIMES THEATRE CRITIC

Kalamandalam Manoj

with Roshni Pillai, Jan Zeitlin, and Janhavi Pillai

introduced by Kaladharan Vishwanath

Thursday, October 17 7:30 pm

A Hunter, the most exotic character in Kathakali, explores the forest with vivid mime and great humor.

Friday, October 18 7:30 pm

Princess Damayanti, abandoned in the forest by Prince Nala, is discovered asleep.

Saturday, October 19 7:30 pm

Sunday, October 20 3:00 pm

Princess Damayanti, walking in a garden with her friend, sees the beautiful Golden Swan, who delivers a message of love.

Sunday matinee includes a reception for the artists and a special event

Tickets must be purchased in advance because of limited seating.

General: $30; Students and teenagers: $20; Children: $10

Private performances in a West Oakland studio. Easy parking.

<https://dresherensemble.org/kathakali/>

PRESENTED BY GRAEME VANDERSTOEL WITH THE PAUL DRESHER ENSEMBLE

SUPPORT FROM SACHI (SOCIETY FOR ART AND CULTURAL HERITAGE OF INDIA) sachi.org